Mrs. Mina Hail, an old woman and her son, 16 years old, were murdered at Boone's Fork, Letcher county, on Nov. 13. Sol and Lige Flemings, brothers, were arrested. They were indicted by the recent grand jury. Saturday night a young man confessed to murdering Mrs. Hall and her son. He broke down, wept piteously and among other things said: "I can bear it no longer. Don't you see the blood on my hande? I am guilty, I killed Mrs. Hall and her son for her money, $400, which I have in my pocket. I swore lies against Sol and Lige Flemings. They are innocent and should be released from the clutches of the law.' Time and again he cried like a child all day long while he was being guarded. Many people believe he is only pretending, and that he is not crazy. The $400 was found in his pocket—an inside one and securely sewed. Sol and Lige Flemings, who have been proclaiming their innocence since the day of their arrest, are not guilty and will be released from the county jail.
